PRESS RELEASE

Services Available for Victims of Las Vegas Shooting

Our hearts are heavy and saddened trying to understand the tragic events that occurred in Las Vegas. The San Luis Obispo County District Attorney's Office grieves with everyone impacted by this heinous act.

During this time, it is important for our community to support one another and to assist those directly affected. Many individuals may not know where to turn for support. If you are a victim that was present at the concert, or a relative of a victim affected by this tragedy, the Christopher G. Money Victim Witness Assistance Center, through the California Victim Compensation Program, can assist with counseling and/or medical expenses.

Please contact our office to speak to an advocate. 805-781-5821
