B. Alternates:

Written notification to ALAB Chair and ALAB Secretary from appointing/nominating entity listed above prior to participation as an Alternate.

V. Mid-term Appointments:

A. For positions vacated mid-term, the replacement Member, nominated by the previous Member's association, organization or appointed by a Supervisor, will finish out the vacated term and can be re-appointed by the Board of Supervisors once the vacated term expires. Mid-term appointments must be approved by the Board of Supervisors. Mid-term appointments are subject to Maddy Act posting requirement through the County Clerk's office. (Appointments made to fill end of term vacancies do not require Maddy Act posting). All appointment requests require the County Clerk's signature on the Board of Supervisors' transmittal letter.

B. In the event a Member's term expires and no replacement is designated, the previous Member may hold the position until a replacement is appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

VI. Selection and Duties of Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Members:

Prior to the first ALAB meeting of the calendar year, the Chair shall initiate a nomination/election process. During the first ALAB meeting of the calendar year, as needed, the voting membership shall elect a Chair and Vice-Chair. Terms for each shall be two years, with no limit to the number of terms each can serve. Terms shall begin the second ALAB meeting of the calendar year.

If the Chair should vacate their position mid-term, the Vice Chair shall assume the duties of the Chair until such a time when the full ALAB membership has an opportunity to nominate and elect a new Chairperson. If the Vice Chair should vacate their position mid-term, the Chair shall ~~initiate~~ initiate a nomination process to fill that position as soon as is practically possible upon election by the full ALAB membership. In both instances, the newly elected Chair or Vice Chair will finish out the vacated term and can be re-elected for a full two-year term once the vacated term expires.

A. Duties of Chair (or Vice Chair in the absence of the Chair):

- coordinate agendas with Secretary, review draft minutes prior to meetings
- conduct meetings according to agendas
- promote open discussion of matters related to official business of ALAB
- conduct public comment period in a manner meeting Brown Act requirements: allow public comment on each agenda item. The Chair may limit the length of comment at his/her discretion. The Chair shall also monitor the participation level of guests.
- represent the ALAB at public hearings, meetings, etc (or designate a voting member as needed)
- assign voting Members or Alternates to represent ALAB on outside committees and other groups
- sign correspondence
- address chronic non-attendance of Members as needed. Notify appointing body of chronic absences of their representative
- assure compliance with Brown Act and Maddy Act and any other legal requirements
- review Organizational Structure and Operating Guidelines on a regular basis

B. Duties of Members, Alternates and Ex-Officio Members:

- submit agenda items and corresponding information to Secretary 14 calendar days before meeting. (Supplemental information must be submitted in electronic form to facilitate posting on the Ag Commissioner's website)
- punctually attend all regular and committee meetings to the maximum extent possible. (ALAB could request dismissal or replacement from the appointing authority for members that miss 2 consecutive meetings without contacting the Secretary in advance)
- inform the Chair or Secretary as soon as possible or by 5:00pm the Friday before the meeting if unable to attend the meeting (to determine if a quorum will be present)
- review agenda and all information prior to meeting and be prepared to propose motions, participate in all discussions and take appropriate action in the form of voting. (Ex-officio Members are excluded from voting however they can make motions).
- conscientiously follow high ethical standards in putting the broad public interest ahead of any personal interest. Abstain from all votes where a conflict of interest would appear to influence decisions
- keep appointing body (or Department Head for Ex-officio members) informed of ALAB discussions, positions and action items
- if designated by the Chair, voting Members may represent and speak for ALAB at public hearings or other meetings. (Voting Members not designated by Chair to represent ALAB, who testify at public hearings or other meetings shall clearly identify themselves as speaking individually and not on behalf of ALAB).
- report to ALAB actions/discussions of any meetings attended as an ALAB representative

C. Additional Duties of Ex-officio Members:

- represent the UCCE and Ag Commissioner's offices
- prepare material and may provide recommendations/options for ALAB review

VII. Meeting Schedule and Standing, Ad Hoc Committees:

- Meetings shall be held on the first Monday of each month as-needed or as determined by the Chair
- Standing, Ad Hoc Committees: the ALAB Board or the Chair may assign standing and ad hoc committees which may be made up of ALAB members, Alternates and any-members of the public. Standing committees are subject to all Brown Act requirements.

VIII. Agenda and Meeting Minutes:

All meetings of ALAB shall be held in conformance with the requirements of the Ralph M. Brown Act (Brown Act). The actions of the ALAB shall be performed in meetings open to the public and adequate public notice shall be provided. Closed sessions may be held only on the advice of County Counsel and in conformance with provisions of the Brown Act.

Meeting agendas shall be developed by the Chair and Secretary. Written requests from Members or others to place items on the agenda shall be submitted to the Chair at least 14 days in advance of the next meeting. The Chair shall bring such written requests before the members for their concurrence, and/or determine what will be placed on future agendas. The Chair shall place time critical items on the agenda as needed without consulting members.

A. The agenda shall serve as the meeting announcement and shall include the following:

- date, time and location of meeting
- call to order and announcements by the Chair
- open comment period
- reports from Members/agencies
- review, correction and approval of previous meeting minutes
- business items
- agenda items within each topic shall include the name of the responsible presenter
- website and physical location where agendas, approved minutes and supplemental handouts for agenda items can be accessed

B. The Secretary shall prepare agendas and minutes of all meetings:

- agenda items and supplemental/corresponding information shall be submitted to the Secretary 14 calendar days in advance of meetings.
- ten calendar days in advance of meetings, the Secretary shall distribute the current agenda corresponding/supplemental information and available draft minutes from previous meetings to all Members, Alternates, and others requesting notification.
- agendas will be posted according to Brown Act requirements, at least 72 hours in advance of meetings on the ALAB website.

- the Secretary shall post agendas, supplemental/corresponding information (if available in electronic form), draft and approved minutes on the County Ag Commissioner's website at <http://www.slocounty.ca.gov/Departments/Agriculture-Weights-and-Measures.aspx/>
- requests from non-members for advance distribution to Members of information related to issues not on the agenda shall be refused. The requester can present information in person during the open comment period at meetings.
- requests from non-members for advance distribution to Members of information related to issues on the agenda shall be granted and shall be submitted to the Secretary 14 calendar days in advance of meetings in electronic form for posting on the County Ag Commissioner's website and/or the requester shall be invited to present information in person during the discussion of the agenda item during meetings.
- agendas, minutes, correspondence and supplemental material shall be retained by the Secretary for 5 years.

C. Use of tape recorder to prepare minutes:

The Secretary can tape record meetings and shall act as custodian of tape recordings. The sole purpose of tape recordings is to facilitate the preparation of the minutes of the recorded meetings. (No statutory authority exists that requires advisory board meetings be tape recorded).

Tape recordings are subject to the California Public Records Act (CPRA). Any person has the right to file a CPRA request with the Secretary to either listen to the recording on equipment provided by ALAB or to make a duplicate copy. CPRA requests will be processed by the Secretary following the Ag Commissioner's standard operating procedure. When such requests are received, the Secretary will notify ALAB Members and Alternates. Identity of the requestor shall be provided to ALAB Members unless the requestor asks that such information be withheld, as allowed for in the CPRA. Tape recordings shall be erased once minutes are approved (but not erased within less than 30 days after a recording is made, per CPRA requirements).

IX. Quorum Requirements and Voting Procedure:

A. The minimum number for a quorum shall be a simple majority of the ALAB representative positions that are currently filled (e.g. if there are 16 total positions and all seats are filled then a quorum would be 9 members, however, if one seat is officially vacant – 15 seats, then a quorum would be reached with 8 members). A quorum must be present for voting on any business item listed on the agenda.

B. In the absence of a quorum, the Chair may cancel the meeting. If the meeting is held, discussion about agenda items can take place. However, no votes can be taken.

C. Alternates may vote in place of an absent member. If the Member and Alternate are both present, the Alternate may not vote but may participate in discussions. Members or Alternates must be present at meetings to cast vote, except as detailed in section E below.

D. Ex-officio Members may make motions but are excluded from voting.

E. Teleconferencing Participation: members may attend ALAB meetings via conference call or videoconference; however, per County Counsel's April 7, 2023 memo, a quorum must be present at the meeting site. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting, ~~and count toward the establishment of a quorum,~~ as long as all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and each director can participate in all matters before the board, including, without limitation, the ability to propose, object to, and vote upon a specific action to be taken by the board or committee. In addition, any member attending via teleconference who wishes to vote on ALAB matters must identify either a "just cause" or an "emergency circumstance" that prevents them from attending in person. Furthermore, teleconferencing participation is limited to less than three consecutive meetings (and no more than 20% of meetings held) as detailed in the April 7, 2023 memo.
