

Enhancing Connections with Children and Families

Please join SLO Thrive Home Visiting Collaborative for a day-long symposium led by Dr. Beegle, where we'll explore poverty's impact on maternal, infant, and early adolescent health. Gain insights into the experiences of families living in poverty, dispel myths, and understand how our own backgrounds influence communication and relationships. Discover practical strategies to improve outcomes and connect with others dedicated to positive change, enriching community building and fostering individual and family resilience. Reservations for this free event are limited. Secure your spot today!
