FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

IF I AM ELECTED, CAN I HOLD MORE THAN ONE OFFICE AT THE SAME TIME?

This is a legal question which the County Clerk-Recorder cannot answer. The County Clerk-Recorder cannot refuse to issue nomination papers unless it is prohibited as stated in the first question above. A person's legal right to hold more than one office at the same time is governed by common law doctrine of incompatible offices. Government Code Section 1099 codifies this common law rule. This section states: a) that an officer shall not simultaneously hold two public offices that are incompatible, as defined, and 2) when two public offices are incompatible, a public officer shall be deemed to have forfeited the first office upon acceding to the second.

There are numerous court cases and attorney general opinions which address specific situations of incompatible offices. There is a list of case cites and copies of several of the opinions in the County Clerk-Recorder's Office that you may request; however, this is not an exhaustive list of all available information and you are advised to seek legal counsel to determine the incompatibility of the offices.

BALLOT NAMES AND DESIGNATIONS

NAME ON BALLOT

The candidate indicates on the Declaration of Candidacy how his/her name should appear on the ballot. This notation should be recognizable as the name under which the candidate is registered, though the two need not be identical. (Example: A candidate registered as "Jonathan William Smith" may use such variations as "John W. Smith", "John Smith", or "J. William (Bud) Smith".)

No title or degree may appear on the same line on a ballot as a candidate's name. (EC §13106)

RULES FOR PRINTING CANDIDATE'S NAMES ON BALLOTS

Names of candidates shall be printed on the ballot in accordance with the following rules:

- (1) If the office is to be voted upon wholly within, but not throughout, one county, as in the case of Municipal, School and Special Districts, the order shall be determined in accordance with the randomized alphabet as provided for in Elections Code Sections 13112 and 13111(f).

RANDOMIZED ALPHABET DRAWING

For each election, the Secretary of State shall conduct a drawing of the letters of the alphabet pursuant to the procedures set forth in Elections Code Section 13112. The result of this drawing shall be known as the randomized alphabet and will be used to determine the order of candidates as specified above.

BALLOT DESIGNATION

The ballot designation is the word or group of words that will appear on the ballot under the candidate's name, designating the principal profession, vocation, or occupation of the candidate. Acceptable ballot designations are governed by Elections Code Section 13107 and Secretary of State Regulations. All candidates may choose a ballot designation to appear immediately under their name on the ballot. (EC §13107; Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, §20711.)

BALLOT DESIGNATION WORKSHEET

A Ballot Designation Worksheet must be completed and filed with the elections official at the same time that the candidate files his/her Declaration of Candidacy. The statute mandates that no designation will appear under the candidate's name on the ballot if the candidate fails to file the required worksheet. (EC §13107.3.).

The ballot designation must be chosen from one of the four categories below and are governed by Elections Code Section 13107 and California Code of Regulations, Title 2, §20711.

(1) ELECTIVE OFFICE: Words designating the elective city, county, district, state, or federal office which the candidate holds at the time of filing the nomination documents to which he or she was elected by vote of the people, or to which he or she was appointed, in the case of a superior court judge. (EC §13107 (a)(1), Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, §20712)

Example 1: An acceptable ballot designation for an assembly representative from the 33rd Assembly District, would be “Member of the Assembly, 33rd District.”

Example 2: For local offices, a candidate who is currently in office as mayor may use the designation “Mayor, City of San Luis Obispo.”

Example 3: Proposed ballot designations indicating a position of legislative leadership or leadership in another elected body, such as “Majority Leader of the California Senate,” “Speaker of the California State Assembly,” or “City of San Luis Obispo Mayor Pro Tem” are not elective offices and therefore not allowed. However, they may, subject to the three-word limit, be considered as an occupation. (See (4) below.)

(2) INCUMBENT: The word “incumbent” if the candidate is a candidate for the same office which he or she holds at the time of filing the nomination papers, and was elected to that office by a vote of the people, or, in the case of a superior or municipal court judge, was appointed to that office.

- The term “incumbent” must be used as a noun. It shall not be used in conjunction with any other words, including any accompanying adjectives or modifiers. For example, “Incumbent Assembly member, 33rd Assembly District” or “Incumbent City Councilmember” would be impermissible designations.
- Incumbent cannot be combined with any other designation and must stand alone. For example: Incumbent/Rancher is not permissible. (EC §13107 (a)(2)., Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2 §20713.)

(3) APPOINTED INCUMBENT: The phrase “appointed incumbent” if the candidate holds an office other than a judicial office by virtue of appointment, and the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office, or, if the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office or to some other office, the word

“appointed” and the title of the office, subject to the three word limit in (4). In either instance, the candidate may not use the unmodified word “incumbent” or any words designating the office unmodified by the word “appointed.”

- If an incumbent was appointed in lieu of an election because the number of candidates did not exceed the number required to be elected at the last election for that office, the candidate is not required to use “appointed”. (EC §13107 (a)(4)., Cal. Code Regs., tit. §20715.)

(4) 3-WORD PROFESSION/OCCUPATION/VOCATION: No more than three words designating either the current principal professions, vocations, and/or occupations of the candidate, or the principal professions, vocations, and/or occupations of the candidate during the calendar year immediately preceding the filing of nomination documents. (EC §13107 (a)(3)., Cal. Code Regs., tit. §20714.)

DEFINITIONS

Definitions of some of the above terms as they are used in Elections Code section 13107, subdivision (a)(3), are defined as follows:

“Profession” means a field of employment requiring special education or skill and requiring knowledge of a particular discipline. Examples of an acceptable designation of a “profession,” as defined in this subdivision, include, but are not limited to, “attorney,” “physician,” “accountant,” “architect,” and “teacher.”

“Occupation” means the employment in which one regularly engages or follows as the means of making a livelihood. Examples of an acceptable designation of an “occupation,” as defined in this subdivision include, but are not limited to, “rancher,” “restaurateur,” “retail salesperson,” “manual laborer,” “construction worker,” “computer manufacturing executive,” “military pilot,” “secretary,” and “police officer.”

“Vocation” means a trade, a religious calling, or the work upon which a person, in most but not all cases, relies for his or her livelihood and spends a major portion of his or her time. Examples of an acceptable designation of a “vocation,” as defined in this subdivision include, but are not limited to, “minister,” “priest,” “mother,” “father,” “parent”, “homemaker,” “dependent care provider,” “carpenter,” “plumber,” “electrician,” and “cabinetmaker.”

“Principal” as that term is used in this subdivision, means a substantial involvement of time and effort such that the activity is one of the primary, main or leading professional, vocational or occupational endeavors of the candidate. Involvement that is only nominal, pro forma, or titular in character does not meet the requirements of the statute.

- If a candidate holds a current and active license from the State of California to engage in a profession, vocation or occupation, the candidate is entitled to consider it one of his or her “principal” professions, vocations or occupations.

- A candidate may not claim such profession, vocation or occupation as one of his or her “principal” professions, vocations or occupations if (i) the candidate’s licensure status is “inactive” at the time the candidate files his or her nomination document, or (ii) the candidate’s license has been suspended or revoked by the agency issuing the license at the time the candidate files his or her nomination documents.

- A candidate may designate multiple principal professions, vocations and/or occupations. If more than one profession, vocation or occupation is listed, it shall be separated by a slash (“/”). Example: An Assembly representative who happens to be a lawyer and rancher can use the designation “Legislator/Lawyer/Rancher”.

- If a candidate proposes a ballot designation including multiple principal professions, vocations or occupations, the proposed ballot designation must comply with the following: Each such proposed profession, vocation or occupation must independently qualify as a “principal” profession, vocation or occupation, as that term is defined above.

“Community Volunteer” means a person who engages in an activity or performs a service for or on behalf of, without profiting monetarily, one of more of the following:

- 1) A charitable, educational, or religious organization as defined by the United States Internal Revenue Code §501(c)(3);
- 2) A governmental agency; or
- 3) An educational institution.

The activity or service must constitute substantial involvement of the candidate’s time and effort such that the activity or service is the sole, primary, main or leading professional, vocational or occupational endeavor of the candidate, who is not engaged concurrently in another principal profession, vocation or occupation. “Community Volunteer” cannot be used in conjunction with any other profession, occupation or vocation.

OTHER RULES

- The proposed ballot designation shall be grammatically correct, generic, and all words must be spelled correctly.
- Hyphenated words that appear in any generally available standard reference dictionary, published in the United States at any time within the 10 calendar years immediately preceding the election for which the words are counted, shall be considered as one word. Each part of all other hyphenated words shall be counted as a separate word.
- Punctuation shall be limited to the use of a comma (e.g., District Attorney, San Luis Obispo County) and a slash (e.g., Legislator/Rancher/Physician), pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section. A hyphen may be used if, and only if, the use of a hyphen is called for in the spelling of a word as it appears in a standard reference dictionary of the English language.
- All California geographical names shall be considered to be one word and shall be limited to the names of cities, counties and states. The names of special districts and political subdivisions are not “geographical names.” If the candidate desires, the geographical name may be used in the form of “City of.....” “County of.....,” or “...County.”
- An acronym shall be counted as one word.
- A ballot designation may not comprise or include commercial identification information such as a trademark, service mark, trade name, or the specific name of a business, partnership, corporation, company, foundation, or organization.
Examples of an improper use of commercial identification information include, but are not limited to, “Acme Company President,” “Smith Foundation Director,” and “UCLA Professor.”
- A candidate who does not want a ballot designation should indicate this in the space provided for ballot designation on the Declaration of Candidacy, by writing “NONE”.

DESIGNATIONS NOT ACCEPTED

Neither the Secretary of State nor any other election official shall accept a designation of which any of the following would be true:

- It would mislead the voter.
- It would suggest an evaluation of a candidate: A laudatory adjective that would suggest an evaluation of the candidate's qualifications shall not be permitted. Examples of ballot designations usually considered to suggest an evaluation of a candidate, may include but are not limited to, "outstanding", "leading", "expert", "virtuous", "eminent", "senior," "emeritus," "specialist," "magnate," "best," "famous," "respected," "honest," and "prominent."
- It would suggest a Status: A status is a state, condition, social position or legal relation of the candidate to another person, persons, or the community as a whole. Examples of a status include, but are not limited to, "veteran," "proponent," "reformer," "scholar," "founder," "philosopher," "philanthropist," "activist," "taxpayer," "husband," "wife," "patriot", "citizen", and "appointee."
- It abbreviates the word "retired" or places it following any word or words that it modifies.
 - Examples "Ret. Army General," "Navy Admiral, Retired" and "City Attorney, Retired." are not permissible.
 - Generally, a retired status may be allowed if the candidate can demonstrate retirement. The following are examples of evidence supporting retired status:
 - Served in the position being requested to be listed as retired from for more than 5 years;
 - Is collecting or eligible to collect retirement benefits/pension;
 - Is 55 or more years old;
 - Left the position voluntarily after serving a minimum of 5 years;
 - If requesting the use of a retired public office designation, was not recalled from or did not fail to win that office or surrender it to run for another office in a previous election campaign;
 - Has not had another more recent occupation;
 - Retirement benefits are providing a principal source of income.
- It uses a word or prefix, such as "former" or "ex-," which means a prior status. The only exception is the use of the word "retired."
 - Examples: "Former Congressman," "Ex-Senator," and "Former Educator" are not permissible.
- Retired cannot be used in conjunction with another principal profession, occupation or vocation.

- Example: Retired Educator/Salesperson is not permissible.
- It uses the name of any political party, whether or not it has qualified for the ballot.
 - Example: “Democratic Party Chair,” “Republican Central Committee member” and “Socialist” are not permissible.
- It uses a word or words referring to a racial, religious, or ethnic group.
 - Examples: “Indian Sculptor,” “Latino Notary,” “African-American Firefighter,” “Christian Physician,” and “Caucasian Policeman” are not permissible.
 - If the candidate is a member of the clergy, the candidate may not make reference to his or her specific denomination. However, the candidate may use his or her clerical title as a ballot designation: for example, “Rabbi,” “Pastor,” “Minister,” “Priest,” “Bishop,” “Deacon,” “Monk,” and “Nun.”
- It refers to any activity prohibited by law.

DESIGNATION REJECTED

If upon checking the ballot designation worksheet and accompanying nomination documents, the election official finds the designation to be in violation of any of the restrictions set forth in this section, the candidate shall be notified by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the mailing address appearing on the candidate’s nomination documents. (Note: It is important for the candidate to include a correct telephone number, facsimile number (if available) and mailing address on the ballot designation worksheet in order to expedite communication in the event the ballot designation is rejected.)

1. The candidate shall, within three days from the date of receipt of the notice, appear before the election officer or, in the case of the Secretary of State, notify the Secretary of State by telephone, and provide an alternate designation.
2. In the event the candidate fails to provide an alternate designation, no designation shall appear after the candidate’s name.

FORMAT, CHANGES, ETC.

1. No designation given by a candidate shall be changed by the candidate after the final date for filing nomination documents, except as specifically requested by the election official.

2. The designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both Primary and General Election, unless the candidate, at least 98 days prior to the General Election, requests in writing a different designation which the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request.

3. In all cases, words shall be printed on the ballot in 8-point Roman uppercase and lowercase type except that, if the designation selected is so long that it would conflict with the space requirements of Elections Code Sections 13207 and 13211, the election official shall use a type size for the designation for each candidate for that office sufficiently smaller to meet these requirements.

BALLOT DESIGNATION BASIC TEST

These questions will help determine if a ballot designation will be accepted:

1. Is it true?
2. Is it accurate?
3. If it is true and accurate, does it mislead?
4. Is it generic? (This means "IBM" is out, "Computer Company" is okay.)
5. Is it neutral? (This means not for or against.)
6. Is it how this person makes a living?
