Road Name Selection Criteria

Title 20 - Section 20.03.018 - Road Name Selection

Road names shall be based on the following criteria:

- Duplicate Road Names. Road names shall not duplicate another road name used elsewhere in the unincorporated areas of the county or in an incorporated city. Similar sounding names are considered duplicate regardless of spelling.
- Family Names. Roads shall not be named after a family surname unless it can be proven in writing to the satisfaction of the Department of Planning and Building that the surname is one of historical prominence in the area of the road to be named.
- Language. Road names in either English or a foreign language shall be grammatically correct and easy to pronounce and spell and shall not include the use of slang or profanity.
- Road Name Length. Road names shall be of a length to fit on a 36 inch sign blade (approximately 18 letters).
- Road Type Classification. Road names shall include the appropriate road classification as set forth below:
